

To the Honorable Commissioners of the FCC,

I do not think it is the best interest of the media-dependent public to allow multiple outlet ownership in a single market. As it is, many companies have found a way around this rule. Eliminating the rule will create monopolies that hve no concern for individual communities.

Thank you,

LaSandra Bowman